REFERENCE:

Memo to Chief, [REDACTED], dated 27 August 1951, subject, Request for Information

1. The Washington office of the Associated Press has contacted this office, and we were able to give them the information which they desired. However, your action was quite proper in referring the requestor to Washington for information.

2. Recently adopted procedures outline very carefully the proper channels for dissemination of any classified information, even though the classification be only "Restricted."
